“Trustee Training: Library Trustees and Local Government: Good Practices for Great Relationships”

Wednesday, October 15, 2025

6:00 PM to 8:00 PM

Description

On Wednesday, October 15th, NIOGA presents “Trustee Training: Library Trustees and Local Government: Good Practices for Great Relationships” from 6-8PM, led by NIOGA’s attorney, Stephanie Adams, and her team at the LOSA. No matter what type of library it is leading, it is important for a board of trustees to have a positive relationship with local government. This session will review legal considerations of working with municipalities, as well as tips and tricks for creating and maintaining a positive relationship (or for healing a rift if one has emerged). Attendees will receive a learning checklist of the sessions key take-aways, and a certificate of attendance.

Registration

Registration in advance will not be required for this training. Instead, an Attendance Verification Form will be shared with participants via a link in the chat at the end of the session. We will alert you when this link is available and ask that you enter attendee information. Groups attending together will be able to clarify such through the completion of one form. After the training is over, anyone having issues with this process can email info@stephaniecoleadams.com to alert the office.
